Dear Ms. Dortch:

In its latest anticompetitive attack,¹ Viasat, Inc. reiterates its baseless complaints about Space Exploration Technologies Corp.'s ("SpaceX's") network and ignores, once again, that the Commission specifically directed the FCC staff—not competitors—to review the merits of winning bidders' Rural Digital Opportunity Fund ("RDOF") applications. SpaceX has welcomed that staff review to demonstrate that it will meet all of its RDOF obligations.

Sincerely,

/s/ David Goldman
